FX: SHOWY BRASSY AMERICAN NEWS JINGLE

Ann: Hello, and welcome back to American right wing news.

Sean: We've got an exclusive for you now, something not shown on any other American News Channel. This is our reconstruction of our imaging of what happened in the evil British Petroleum's board room, right after the oil spill that threatens the whole future of America.

GRAMS: LIGHT PIANO MUSIC UNDER.

FX: EXPLOSION

Very English Guy: I say chaps. One of our oil wells, chuffing well seems to have exploded.

More English Man: Good golly.

Posh Woman: Well I never!

Very English Guy: Oh don't worry. It'll only affect the yanks.

Posh Woman: Oh bravo. No problems then.

More English man: More tea anyone?

GRAMS: PIANO MUSIC END

Sean: DISGUSTING! How do these Britishers sleep at night?

Ann: We have a British man on the line now; Man how could you do this to America?

Steve: Well I hardly think...

Sean: THERE WAS NO APOLOGY THERE FOLKS!

Steve: Well your clip was very unfair, BP ar..

Ann: (INTERRUPTING) BRITISH Petroleum.

Steve: No, NO! That's just it! They haven't been known as British petroleum since they were privatised in the 80's.

Sean: SOCIALISM!

Steve: Er, what? No. In fact socialism almost the exact..

Ann: SHUT UP MAN! I want to cut you off there; any final words?

Steve: Well I just think it's grossly unfair to put such a stupid stereotype filled clip on a respected national broadcaster, as an attempt to tar an entire country. At least over in Britain we'd never do such a thing.

Sean: Good bye British Man! You devil.

Ann: Next up a Texas Dude tells us what he thinks of British Petroleum.

George: (HUH HUH LAUGH), well y'all, that there Britisher petrolium done come down 'ere ruining our lands so how's we done do bomb the hell out of that there do hingle?

Sean: More from George W Bush after this break.

GRAMS: SAME OVER THE TOP NEWS JINGLE AS START
