

New Marriage Vows

FX: WEDDING MARCH

Vicar: We are gathered here today to join Christopher P. Hunter and Ella J. Hazel together in holy and fiscal matrimony.

This partnership born by our Conservative Government is a long term bond, and should not be entered into lightly or without due process and filing.

Does anyone know of any just cause or outstanding liability why Chris and Ella may not lawfully invest together today, please file your P416E form now, or forever hold your peace.

THERE IS SILENCE.

Vicar: So now I ask of you both; Do you take each other to claim your lawful tax allowance? Will you spend, save, file and fiddle your assets together from this day forward; forsaking all penalties and duty until your marriage has matured?

Chris & Ella: We Do.

Vicar: Then by the power vested in me, by the Church of England and Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs, you can now take your bribe.

FX: WEDDING BELLS.
